official or Secretary concerned (or in the case of a Presidential appointee under subsection (b), the Director of the Office of Government Ethics), the congressional ethics committees, or the Judicial Conference of the United States, is not reasonably expected to perform the duties of his office or position for more than sixty days in a calendar year, except that if such individual performs the duties of his office or position for more than sixty days in a calendar year—

"(1) the report required by subsections (a) and (b) shall be filed within fifteen days of the sixtieth day, and

"(2) the report required by subsection (e) shall be filed as provided in such subsection.

"(i) The supervising ethics office for each branch may grant a publicly available request for a waiver of any reporting requirement under this section for an individual who is expected to perform or has performed the duties of his office or position less than one hundred and thirty days in a calendar year, but only if the supervising ethics office determines that—

"(1) such individual is not a full-time employee of the Government,

"(2) such individual is able to provide services specially needed by the Government,

"(3) it is unlikely that the individual's outside employment or financial interests will create a conflict of interest, and

"(4) public financial disclosure by such individual is not necessary in the circumstances.
